INDIAN CHAPTER

The following are notes taken by Peter Kellow during the presentation

There are encouraging signs in India for traditionalism

Some traditional craft centres have been constructed.

Jal Mahal Palace in Jaipur has been restored

In Lavasa, near Pune, new urbanism has been used

Traditional skills and identity are considered important

Traditional cities having a compact legibility provide good examples to follow

Traditionalism works with the climate with a hierarchy of built forms. It uses symbolism which is very strong in India.

New developments using traditional materials are coming back into fashion

We need to promote knowledge to enable this to happen

There is a publication on using Indian tradition based on the Conference of 2007

At a high level of policy making, groups are promoting traditionalism.

INTBAU goes to councils to promote traditionalism
